

Writing Prompts

Chapter 1

In complete sentences describe what a carrier pigeon is and how they were helpful before we had technology.

Chapter 2

In complete sentences explain the circumstances Jack and Annie find themselves in as they arrive to Glastonbury, England.

Chapter 3

In complete sentences and using 4 examples from this chapter, explain how Jack felt when Teddy started the engine and the plane took off for their mission.

Chapter 4

Describe in your own words and in complete sentences what happens in this chapter of the story.

Chapter 5

Annie thought Gaston and Suzette had courage. In complete sentences, define courage and what Gaston and Suzette did to demonstrate they had it.

Chapter 6

Gaston got tears in his eyes when Jack spoke of the invasion being a success. In complete sentences explain why Gaston had this reaction.

Chapter 7

Jack and Annie had a dilemma of knowing who was a friend and who was an enemy. If you were to give them some advice on how to decipher this, what would you say to them? Write in complete sentences.

Chapter 8

In complete sentences and in your own words describe what happened to Annie and Jack after they boarded the train.

Chapter 9

This chapter was about Jack and Annie speaking to Sylvie in code as she helped them decipher what the message meant from Kathleen. Using your own ideas and using the correct punctuation, write a conversation you would have with your friend, pretending you're required to speak in code for safety, and you need to go to the lunch room to eat lunch. How would you describe to your friend how to get there?

Chapter 10

Kathleen exhibited compassion, responsibility and courage by watching over the children each day and night. Choose one of these characteristics, define it, then use examples to demonstrate how she displayed that characteristic.

Chapter 11

Jack felt a series of emotions during this chapter. Explain in complete sentences how he felt at the beginning of the chapter and describe each emotion with examples from the book, ending with his determination to help the children.

Chapter 12

Kathleen tricked Jack into thinking they were invisible as they passed through the checkpoint. In complete sentences explain why her plan worked.

Chapter 13

Kathleen's magic began working again at the end of this chapter. Describe in complete sentences what had caused her magic to disappear.

Chapter 14

Jack and Annie began to realize how special it was to live in America. In complete sentences and with good detail, explain three reasons why you appreciate living in America.