

Vocabulary

Chapter 1

1. Architect p.17 noun - a person who designs buildings and advises in their construction
2. Unique p.36 adjective – peculiar; unusual
3. Obscure p.36 adjective – relatively unknown
4. Embassy p.77 noun – a body of diplomatic representatives
5. Consulate p.77 noun – the office, term of office or jurisdiction of a consul
6. Intern p.85 noun – an advanced student or graduate usually in a professional field
7. Linden p.43 noun – a tree
8. Deprivation p.164 noun – the state of being kept from possessing or enjoying something
9. Ban p.190 verb – to prohibit the use, performance, or distribution of
10. Independent p.190 adjective – not looking to others for guidance
11. Loophole p.212 noun – an error in the way a law, rule or contract is written that makes it possible for some people to legally avoid obeying it
12. Peeved p.229 verb – to annoy
13. Persistent p.245 adjective – existing for a long or longer than usual time or continuously
14. Agitated p.246 adjective – troubled in mind; disturbed and upset
15. Immaculate p.252 adjective – having no stain or blemish
16. Subterfuge p.258 noun - deception
17. Migration p.260 noun - the act, process or an instance of moving from one region or climate to another